ELEVATOR PITCH

Below is an elevator pitch revolving around our brand's patent-pending "Buy Confident Process" that you can share if a participant or interested person asks you for more information about Awesome Joe Auctions.

3 SECONDS: Buy Confident is a patent pending process for buying and selling used goods.

10 SECONDS: It provides a risk-free transaction between the buyer and seller for sight unseen goods by validating conditions that have been disclosed by the seller and/or requested by the buyer.

30 SECONDS: By having conditions of an item not only disclosed but also validated, the buyer wins by receiving exactly what they expect from a listing. The seller also wins because the process attracts more buyers that are confident in what they are considering purchasing. Additionally, money only transacts at the right time ensuring a mutually beneficial experience for the buyer and seller, allowing the market to buy better and sell smarter.
